1. Save $50: This cult-favorite portable speaker

With more than 1,500 rave reviews on Amazon, this portable speaker is a huge crowdpleaser, especially at parties. Right now, you can get it for one of its lowest prices ever—for $50 off the usual retail price. This speaker makes it easy to listen and connect up to two smartphones at once, and it offers playtime of up to 20 hours per charge. It's also similar to our favorite portable Bluetooth speaker under $100, the JBL Flip 4.

Get the JBL Charge 4 Waterproof Portable Bluetooth Speaker at Amazon for $129.95 (Save $50.05)

2. Deal alert: This popular tax software and gift card bundle

It's getting to be that time of year again—tax season—but instead of freaking out, you can try the best online tax software we've ever used by TurboTax. For today only, you can get the 2019 software package for PCs or Macs for its lowest price ever, just over $55. But here's where the deal gets even better: right now if you buy it, you can also get a free $10 gift card at Amazon, so you're technically getting this software for $44.99, which is amazing and probably the cheapest price we'll ever see for this tax software.

Get the TurboTax Premier + State 2019 Tax Software [Amazon Exclusive] [PC Download] + Free $10 Amazon Gift Card at Amazon for $54.99 (Save $25)

3. Lowest price ever: One of our favorite pairs of noise-canceling headphones

The Bose QuietComfort 35 Series II is one of our favorite sets of noise-canceling headphones, and right now you can still get it for its Black Friday price of $279. This is even lower than the previously lowest price we've seen for them, which was $299. They come with active noise-cancellation (ANC), which is completely customizable. These are a great gift for yourself, especially if you're looking to upgrade your current set.

Get the Bose QuietComfort 35 II Wireless Bluetooth Headphones at Amazon for $279 (Save $70)

4. Under $25: The best affordable smart speaker we've ever used

When it comes to end-of-year deals, this Echo Dot deal is pretty awesome. You can snag one for $25, which is the same price we saw for Black Friday and Cyber Monday. It's also our favorite affordable smart speaker and while it doesn't have the best sound, it does have all the Alexa-functions that you really want.

Get the Echo Dot (3rd Gen) at Amazon for $24.99 (Save $25)

5. Under $35: This affordable cast iron Dutch oven

Dutch ovens can really be great to have in the kitchen, but high-end options from brands like Staub or Le Creuset can really set you back. Amazon makes a very versatile one (I have one in my kitchen myself) that looks nearly indistinguishable from other luxury brand Dutch ovens, but at a more affordable price point. You can get them for even cheaper right now, for 15% off the usual retail price, which is an awesome way to save a little extra while you can.

Get the AmazonBasics Enameled Cast Iron Covered Dutch Oven at Amazon starting at $33.99 (Save $6 and up)
